A Bright Idea Whose Time Has Come
By Paul Wiltse, Vice President Prince of Peace

Some of you know that Peggy and I and the Social Concerns Committee have been promoting Energy Star light bulbs for some time at Prince of Peace. I want you all to know that since we last sold light bulbs at church, great improvements have been made in the quality and variety of these bulbs. In addition, we can now be quite certain that concerns about the environment are very real and need our immediate attention.

Now consider these facts:

“If every American home replaced just one light bulb with an ENERGY STAR, we would save enough energy to light more than 2.5 million homes for a year and prevent greenhouse gases equivalent to the emissions of nearly 800,000 cars.”

An energy star light bulb is a compact florescent bulb or CPF which can be purchased from any home hardware store like Home Depot or Menards.

Furthermore CPFs:

Use at least 2/3 less energy than standard incandescent bulbs to provide the same amount of light, and last up to 10 times longer.

Save $30 or more in energy costs over each bulb's lifetime

Generate 70 percent less heat, so they're safer to operate and can cut energy costs associated with home cooling.

CONFIRMATION LESSONS

We have limited time with our confirmation students in which to cover a lot of ground. Picking and choosing key information to share is an engaging task. We hope to cover the key stories of the Bible and significant elements of church history and Lutheran theology, of course. More than just imparting information, however, we hope to make the material obviously relevant for each student's day-to-day life. We hope to enrich their own experience of God and, within the context of the classroom relationships, instill a sense that the church is a life-giving community.

In preparing an assignment focused on Jesus' use of stories, I came across one of my favorites. The occasion is Jesus as a dinner guest in a Pharisee's (Simon) home. While eating, a woman of ill-repute is present, kneels before Jesus, washes his feet with her tears, wipes them with her hair, and anoints him with oil. Jesus senses that Simon is upset. Instead of a direct approach, Jesus tells a little story.

"Simon, suppose two people owed the same person a great deal of money. One owed $5,000 and another owed $500. When neither could repay the loan, their creditor forgave them both. Now, which of them will love him more?" "The one, I suppose, to whom he forgave more." "You have judged rightly," Jesus replied. Jesus then applies the story to what is happening at their dinner table, and he makes a profound point – not only for Simon, but for the ages as well. "Her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much; but he who is forgiven little, loves little." And he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

Jesus makes a radical correlation between our capacity to love, and our receiving forgiveness. It also gives us pause to consider that where there is hard-heartedness, self-absorption and a dearth of love, there may be a detachment in a person's life from those things that could use God's forgiveness.

We are in the midst of Lent. This forty day period imitates Jesus' contemplative sojourn in the wilderness. It is for us also a time of reflection and spiritual renewal, a time to humbly engage God in honest penitence. We do this not to beat up on ourselves, but knowing the promise of this encounter. God meets our debts with forgiveness and restores us. We, in turn, find our hearts increase in gratitude and in our capacity to love.

Andrew

Habitat for Humanity

Twin Cities Habitat for Humanity (TCHfH) has assigned Holy Hammers (HH) a build site at 1414 25th Ave. N. in NE Mpls. Construction is expected to begin week of Apr. 16 or Apr. 23. The capped foundation was completed last fall for this single family, 2 story, 4 bedroom, 1 ½ bath home. It will have a porch and an unattached single car garage.

PoP has been ask to supply 40-45 volunteer days. Dennis Niebeling will again be our project manager for the week of May 14 or 21 when the majority of POP people will be at the site. HH expects to have the dates finalized by the last week of February.

TCHfH has a funding GOAL of $120,000 for each single family home site. Currently the 13 HH congregations have pledged approx. $72,000. We hope to supplement these funds with corporate support from companies like 3M, Medtronic, Wells Fargo, The Gap, Exxon Mobil, etc. who donate dollars for employee volunteers. Last year Medtronic & Wells Fargo supplied over $15,000. HH asks that all who plan to volunteer check with their employer to see if they will supply funds for employee volunteer hours/days.

Additionally for 2007 Thrivent will be matching $0.50 per Thrivent Member's $1.00 contribution up to a maximum of $300 for each Thrivent member's $600. Thrivent has a special form that will allow the contributed monies to be assigned to the HH build site.

Contact Paul Ista 651-484-4443 or e-mail pista@comcast.net to obtain the Thrivent form, to provide employer information for fund supporting or with questions! Sign-up will be posted on the Social Concern bulletin board.

Greetings from the Music Ministry Coordinator—Milt Warkentien

Greetings from Milt,

All the ensembles keep working hard to provide Prince of Peace with a wide variety of music styles for our worship services. We hope that we're bringing God's word to "life" in all the variety of musical styles and thus, that we're enhancing your worship experience.

March is "Spring Break" month in most schools and thus makes scheduling a bit problematic. For this reason, some of our musical groups may not be seen quite as often. On a positive note however, the Wednesday Lenten Services do provide another chance for you to hear many of our talented musicians at Prince of Peace. There are still 4 left for you to attend and I hope you take the opportunity to join us in worship.

The congregation is no less important than the soloist in worship, for we are ALL part of Prince of Peace's worship. We are all part of the body of Christ and without people to sing or play to, people to share Christ's message with or people to worship with, we are not a whole body. Help make us a whole body and join the music team in all our worship services.

May God Bless, Milt

Join Us! Invitation from our Chancel Choir Director—Kathy Tunseth

The Chancel Choir will be presenting the Requiem by Gabriel Faure on Good Friday, April 6 at 7:00pm. We are looking for more singers to participate in this event and are extending an invitation to all who are interested. Time commitment: five 45-minute rehearsals Wednesdays beginning at 7:30pm. Rehearsal dates will be March 7, 14, 21, 28 and April 4. We hope you will consider singing the Requiem and also hope that it will enrich your own Lenten worship. Please contact Director Kathy Tunseth through the church office if you are interested.

Children and Family Ministry—Ginger Ryan

Lent is upon us and once again we are brought into a wilderness time in which we focus on our need to learn and grow. Jesus' forty days of temptation and testing serve to remind Christians of a need to stop and focus, or refocus, our lives. This is a time when we usually think of something to give up helping us focus more fully. An alternative is to give something away during Lent. This practice is not new at Prince of Peace even for our children.

The two children we sponsor to attend Christian School in India will once again be helped by the children of Prince of Peace. I am amazed that once again the Sunday Education Classes have made their stewardship goal within 6 months! Because we have exceeded our goal, we will be able to not only sponsor the two children in India, but also to give to the Synod's Crossing Bridges mission appeal. This appeal will help 4 different areas; the Iringa Diocese in Tanzania, St. Paul to build new missions in the area, support for future leaders with their education, and work to end poverty in Minnesota. What an impact our children and youth are able to make with their focus on giving!

What will your focus be on this Lenten season?

Thoughts from Audrey

I have just returned from the ELCA Youth Ministry Network Extravaganza. As usual it was a meaningful training for folks doing youth ministry across the country. Our theme was "Open House". The Logo was the realtor's open house sign on the front lawn.

The writers of scripture reveal a keen desire of God who builds the home, invites us to come in, sets the table, feeds us until we are full and then feeds us more, graciously establishes house rules, and consistently cleans up after us, forgiving sin and promising eternal life.

In this way, God establishes an OPEN HOUSE. We are invited guests, we are housekeepers, care takers, and it is our responsibility to extend hospitality to the stranger.

If it is centered anywhere, the world of children, youth, and family ministries is centered in the "OPEN HOUSE" of God, in the person of Jesus who seeks and saves the home-less, in the person of the Holy Spirit, the amazing aroma of God drawing us in, making us welcome.

As we are welcomed into the OPEN HOUSE of God, we are invited to rest in the ever present love and grace of God. The OPEN HOUSE is a safe house where our deepest fears are stilled, where our masks are removed, and where the comfy chair of forgiveness and reconciliation awaits us. Renewed and refreshed, fed at the table with the feast of forgiveness, we are challenged to tell others "COME ON IN."

In the OPEN HOUSE of God we are not given a set of "members only" key cards. No, at the direction of the homeowner, we are compelled to welcome others to the "OPEN HOUSE."

Of course there are "house rules," but only one which matters. In the OPEN HOUSE there is one command: "Love One Another." This can be challenging, for to love one another means that I need to love myself, and love others as God loves me, even if it means laying down my life.

This year's Extravaganza invited us to come to God's Open House. We sat down the baggage of life and ministry, rested our weary souls in still waters and renewed our hearts at Jesus' table. We engaged in lively learning moments wondering how we can keep the door open to the house of God for all who enter. We returned home with new ideas, new friends, and new partners in ministry with hope for tomorrow.

Faith Encounters

As Christianity has moved across the globe, the encounters between religion, culture, faiths and nations have a diverse history. During Lent, our forums will give glimpses into a few of those encounters.

March 4 – India.

From growing up in India to teaching at a school for several years, Prince of Peace members Don and Betchen Oberdorfer's story spans decades. Shortly after March 4, they return to India again, maintaining their ties and support of the faith community in India.

March 11 – Students from China.

LuAnne Wyssmann, the Director of the Chinese Hospitality Center by the U of M St. Paul campus, speaks to the opportunity hospitality gives Christians to build relationships with the large number of students that come to the U of M from China, introducing many to Christianity.

March 18 – Sri Lanka.

Prince of Peace member Asitha Sandinayake shares his story of his native land and of the mix of faiths in Sri Lanka. He and his wife Natasha and many others in the US continue to lend support to those in Sri Lanka – particularly with rebuilding following the tsunami.

March 25 – Native American.

Andrew Lawson of the Tsimshian Tribe will be our guest. He is an educator who has taught at St. Cloud State and Augsburg College, as well as having been a principal in Minneapolis and Seattle.

The time is 10:30-12:00 prepare food, 12:00-1:30 serve and clean up. Help either time or both. Some grocery shopping can be done at other times. This is a wonderful mission outreach that the Food for Friends group has provided for over ten years. If you could find 2-3 hours once a month to help, please sign up on the bulletin board or call Paul Thompson, 484-6874.

In addition to other quality requirements, must turn on instantly, produce no sound, and fall within a warm color range or be otherwise labeled as providing cooler color tones.

Are available in different sizes and shapes to fit in almost any fixture, for indoors and outdoors.

Now that 95% of the bulbs in our home have been replaced with CPFs we have learned a few things I would like to pass on:

CPF's are now available in 40, 60, 75, 100 and 150 watt equivalents and in a variety of shapes. In most cases you will find a satisfactory replacement for your old light bulbs.

I recommend that in certain places where you read or work you may want to replace your 100 W incandescent bulbs with 150 W CPFs to ensure that you have the brightness you need for those tasks.

In most places in your home I recommend you use bulbs that provide 'warm' light rather than office, white or daylight. However, in completely enclosed fixtures white light may be fine.

During extremely low outside temperatures like we are currently experiencing, you may notice that the bulb takes a little time to 'warm up' and therefore may not reach its full brightness for 30 seconds or so.

Do not use CPFs in those places where you frequently turn the light on and off.

So why not do the righteous thing this Lenten season? Start replacing your energy wasting incandescent bulbs with CPFs!
