

Karen Gieseke's energy and joy come from accompanying individuals, teams, and organizations as they explore and grow in their unique God-given leadership talents as God's beloved children. As a consultant/coach/facilitator, and a member of the Luther Seminary Contextual Learning team, Karen engages in leadership development experiences, seeking to name, celebrate, and appreciate the talents, strengths, similarities, and differences of God's people, of all ages. Karen is a trained/certified Intercultural Developmental Inventory Qualified Administrator (IDI QA); Gallup Clifton Strengths coach; a Healthy Boundaries, and a Safeguarding God's Children facilitator. Additionally, Karen facilitates sessions on the 5 Love Languages/Motivation By Appreciation; Sacred Listening; SoulTypes, and other spiritual and leadership development tools. Karen previously served as an ELCA Assistant to the Bishop in Southeastern MN, as an InterServe Ministry Associate, and in parish ministry.
